

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Peace and Love - Our world is complex and demanding. The daily pressures on us all are immense, and that is when stress can take over and affect us in all sorts of negative ways. Stress can make us perform less well, it can make us difficult to live with, it can even make us ill. Finding peace can just seem like a bit of a naïve idea. We think we might find peace if we finish that mountain of work or sort out a money problem, but somehow there is always another problem just around the corner and peace eludes us yet again. Could it be that we are looking for peace in the wrong places?

In today's gospel reading, Jesus bids farewell to his friends and gives them some parting promises. One of his promises is that he will leave us his peace, but it will not be a peace found of this world. We will not find Jesus' peace in being marooned on a desert island, in the freedom of a bank holiday Monday or in a pension plan. We will not even find peace in the absence of hostility conflict or war. We will only find peace by living in God's love, and living in God's love means sharing his mission. Jesus' peace is found in integrity and justice and wholeness. Peace is found when we stop thinking about ourselves and think about others.

In Jesus' farewell it is easy to sense the abandonment the disciples must have felt; easy, because there are times when we too feel alone and abandoned. There will almost definitely be times when the inner peace we thought we'd found isn't enough! There'll almost definitely be times when we are afraid and our friends and family seem ill equipped to help us. Jesus reminds us that in times such as these we have the Holy Spirit ever present and dwelling within us to give us strength, comfort and guidance.

In these weeks before Pentecost we celebrate that while life is dishing out its unfair share of relentless challenges, the Spirit is always there to encourage and remind us.

Bite Size

"Realize that true happiness lies within you. Waste no time and effort searching for peace and contentment and joy in the world outside. Remember that there is no happiness in having or in getting, but only in giving. Reach out. Share. Smile. Hug. Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself." - Og Mandino (1923 - 1996)

PARISH PRAYER - Father, pour out your Spirit upon our parish. Grant us a new vision of your glory, a new faithfulness to your Word, and a new consecration to your service; that your love might grow among us and your Kingdom come. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

UKRAINE SPECIAL HUMANITARIAN COLLECTION – The Holy Father, Pope Francis, has asked that a special collection be taken up throughout Europe this Sunday which will be added to his own substantial offering towards the growing humanitarian crisis in the Ukraine that has come about as a result of the ongoing war in that country. These funds will be used for the benefit of those living in the conflict zones and those who are displaced within the country. In order to ensure that this aid is effectively and properly managed, the Holy See will organise specific projects for the most urgent humanitarian emergencies. These projects will be examined on site by a special Commission and the Pontifical Council Cor Unum will approve and evaluate the management of these funds. See the poster at the back of church giving more information about the crisis in Ukraine.

UNION OF CATHOLIC MOTHERS – The next meeting of the UCM takes place at 2pm on Wednesday, May 4th, when the guest speaker will be from Autism Anglia. In Eastertide, we recite REGINA COELI in place of the ANGELUS :

Queen of heaven, rejoice, Alleluia.

For he, whom you did merit to bear, Alleluia,

Has risen as he said, Alleluia.

Pray for us to God, Alleluia.

Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia.

For the Lord has truly risen, Alleluia.

Let us pray: O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech you, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, his mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
