The Sponsored Cycle Ride duly took place last Saturday, with excellent weather to encourage the cyclists on their way. It is too early to say how much money was raised, as sponsorship money is still coming in, but those of us who rode are extremely grateful for the generous sponsorship which we received. Thank you too to those good people who ‘manned’ the church during the hours of the cycle ride : I know by experience how heartening it is when you struggle to reach a church, and then there is someone waiting not just to sign your sponsorship form, but also to greet you with a friendly word. I was very impressed that Mattishall Anglican church welcomed riders with not just squash and biscuits, but with delicious home-made cakes and biscuits – something which I’ve not met before.....

The Barbecue What a weekend it was – the Cycle Ride, and then the annual Parish Barbecue the next day! The BBQ was really one of the best we’ve had, with perfect weather, and an attendance of about seventy people. We were especially grateful to Jose Pereira and Richard May, who did the cooking, and to Richard and Anne, who had done most of the shopping. Also the Summerfords, who loaned the pavilion, and the Cox’s, who provided plates, cutlery, napkins, etc. And also of course to all the people who brought along such delicious salads and puddings. We took a collection for the Colombian childrens’ charity LET THE CHILDREN LIVE, and this raised well over two hundred pounds.

THE YEAR OF FAITH

A couple of weeks ago I wrote here about the Year of Faith which the Holy Father has decreed, and which begins on October 11th (when there will be a special Mass at Noon in the Cathedral). On Tuesday this week the Parish Pastoral Council will be meeting, and the main item on the Agenda will be to give further consideration to what we should undertake during the Year of Faith in the parish here.

As I wrote earlier, there will be the dual objectives of deepening our own faith, and our understanding of The Faith, and also our task of communicating the Faith to others. You already know about the CAFÉ course which we are planning for later in the Autumn on the Saints, those men and women of faith who have such ability to inspire and encourage us in the life of faith.

As regards the second objective, communicating the Faith to others, I continue to feel that we must bear in mind last Sunday’s Gospel reading as we experience the Year of Faith. In it, you remember, some people brought a deaf and dumb man to Jesus to be healed – to be liberated, indeed, from his inability to hear the Truth and to speak of it. This is just what we are called to do in terms of sharing the Faith with others. We are to ‘bring to Jesus’ those who don’t yet know the saving, healing, truth of the Gospel.

In one of my homilies last Sunday, I noted that these unnamed people who brought the deaf and dumb man to Jesus can teach us three things about our own mission. First, they had the conviction that Jesus could help the man, and it was this that motivated them to act. We won’t help others to find truth and meaning in Christ unless we too have the conviction that He can do something life-giving for them. Hence the need to deepen our own personal faith, which only prayer can bring about. Second, the unnamed people acted together. We too must act together in our mission of bringing people to the Lord, and hence our need for a plan, a strategy. And third, they didn’t send the man to Jesus, they took him. We are called likewise to accompany people to the Lord ; sending will not be sufficient or effective. This Year of Faith will be challenging, and a wonderful opportunity for us to serve the Lord
