PARISH NOTICEBOARD

Anniversaries Catherine Foley (2000), Winifred King (1994), Bernadette Winstanley (2008), Fr. Harry Wace (2002), Francis Perrin (2003), and Marie Jones (2006). May they Rest in Peace.

Money Matters Last Sunday, £456.82 was given at the Offertory. Today is being kept as World Mission Day, and there will be a retiring collection for the Association for the Propagation of the Faith. Gift Aid envelopes are available at the back of church.

Repository – end of year Sale Diana Cater writes ‘To make way for new supplies, many items will be on sale at greatly reduced prices. The Sale will be next weekend, after each of the Masses ; come and see what’s on offer.’

UCM Cake Stall Mary Shutt writes ‘The Cake Stall last weekend raised £70. This will go towards the UCM charities. We think this was a great effort by all concerned, and many thanks to all for your kind generosity.’

Pray for Priests Not, on this occasion, for more priests, although this prayer is always needed, but for three priests of the diocese who have died recently. FR. TONY SKETCH looked after this parish for a while - just before we had our first resident priest - when he was parish priest of Swaffham. He later became parish priest of Lowestoft, from which he retired. FR.BEN GRIST was the young man preparing for the priesthood at Oscott, who, because of the grave state of his health, was ordained priest earlier this year. His funeral Mass will take place at the Cathedral at Noon on Thursday this week. FR.PAUL TRINDER had long been retired, and lived at the priest’s cottage at the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham. Please remember all of them in your prayers – and do continue to pray that more vocations to the priesthood may be given heard, and answered.

Readers I asked a few weeks ago in the Newsheet – but some of you may have been away then – that if you are a ‘second reader’, you will please come forwards to the Lectern, ready to lead the Intercessions, during the final clauses of the Creed, so as to begin as soon as the Creed ends. If you stay in your place until the Creed has ended, then there is a break in the flow of the liturgy whilst you, in silence, make your way forward.

THE YEAR OF FAITH

Last Sunday I spoke in the homily about the Year of Faith, its purpose and its opportunities, and gave you a Year of Faith card, with the Creed printed out on it – a reminder of the fact that we are now in the Year of Faith, and of the Catholic Faith, summarized in the Creed, which we are celebrating.

You may, however, want to find out more about this Year of Faith, and for that purpose a special explanatory leaflet is available for you this Sunday. Do take one. It makes suggestions as to what each one of us may do personally to observe this special year.

But of course in this first part of the Year, the activity which we are going to make together, and which will hopefully deepen our personal faith, our understanding of The Faith, and our sharing of the Faith with others, is .....

THE CAFÉ COURSE SAINTS HELPING US TODAY I: SAINT PATRICK

TUESDAY, 7.30PM-9.0PM
IN THE NARTHEX

Do come along, and bring a friend with you.
The format of these evenings is very informal :
we sit at tables and enjoy refreshments,
café-style; a film is shown,
which we then think about together.

In this six-week course, we will be looking at a different saint each week, and asking what he or she can teach us by the life they led and the words they spoke. The Saints are powerful to help us grow in faith.
