

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wanted: Something More Important

“Wanted: Men and women willing to leave behind their old way of life and become fishers of men.”

There aren't many of us who would jump at this job application. It isn't that we don't want to become fishers of men, its leaving behind our old way of life that we're not too keen on. It seems that there is very little that would persuade us to abandon our own self-interest.

In today's gospel one of the most impressive elements is that the early disciples accept the call to repent, abandon their fishing nets and follow Jesus. That they turn away from a successful business in order to become 'fishers of men' is a measure of their commitment.

Today there are still those who accept the challenge to abandon everything and become fishers of men. Each year, thousands of men and women give their lives to God and join religious orders. How do the rest of us answer to call to become 'fishers of men'? We can't all join religious orders; we have to find a way of answering the call in our own situation, and we might have lots of questions to ask first. What would being a disciple involve? Would we be up to the job? What would we have to leave behind? What would we have to give up? Would part time discipleship be okay ... after all we've got lots else to do!

There would be lots of questions we would ask, but sadly no easy answers. There is no one answer that is right for everybody. But the one important message for us today is that discipleship usually means a major shift in direction; a change that involves leaving behind things that get in the way of our relationship with God. It is left to each of us to decide what our particular mode of discipleship might be, and what stands in the path of our new direction. Our new direction has to start with some good hard soul searching, and a real desire to do something more important with our lives.

Church Hygiene - Please do not leave back copies of religious magazines in the church porch or at the back of the church. We are not allowed to circulate books or papers at the moment. The parish bulleting is distributed at the end of Mass for reasons of hygiene. I put back copies of bulletins and other papers in the bin.

Conversion of St Paul, January 25th - When we are struggling to find change in our lives, we could hardly do better than look to the story of Saul, the great persecutor of Christians, who saw the light on the road to Damascus. The story of the conversion of Saul, from the persecutor of Christians to the zealous and holy instrument of evangelisation, Paul, shows the strength of God's power in our lives, and how He can change anything. Although misguided, Saul had always been sincere and committed. In him God saw a tremendous instrument for all that he wanted to accomplish. The lesson here is to remember that for God, nothing is impossible.

Holocaust Memorial Day, 27th January 2021 - The theme for Holocaust Memorial Day (HMD) 2021 is Be the light in the darkness. It encourages everyone to reflect on the depths to which humanity can sink, but also the ways individuals and communities resisted that darkness to 'be the light' before, during and after genocide. Be the light in the darkness is an affirmation and a call to action for everyone marking HMD. His theme asks us to consider different kinds of 'darkness', for example, identity-based persecution, misinformation, denial of justice; and different ways of 'being the light', for example, resistance, acts of solidarity, rescue and illuminating mistruths. We can all stand in solidarity. We can choose to be the light in the darkness in a variety of ways and places – at home, in public, and online.

CTBI's Spring Magazine 2021 - 'Churches Together in Britain and Ireland' have launched their Spring Magazine. It contains articles on the Climate Conference later this year and activities around the Black Lives Matter movement plus much more. Hong Kong Ready Churches - Large numbers of Hong Kongers are expected to come to the UK from 31 January 2021. The government has estimated that 130,000 people will come to the UK in the first year. This will be the biggest planned migration of people to the UK from outside of Europe since Windrush. This is a once-in-a-generation opportunity for the Church to play its part in welcome and witness with these newcomers. Over the next few years, we will be looking at our how well our churches are equipped to show hospitality and to be Hong Kong ready churches.

Prayer for the Election of a Bishop

*"I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who shall do according to my heart and mind: I will establish a lasting house for him and he shall walk before me all my days."
(1 Sam 2:35)*

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Our Lady of Walsingham, Pray for us.

St. Felix, Pray for us.

All Holy Martyrs and Saints of East Anglia, Pray for us.

Copies of this prayer are printed on a card and are available to take away from the back of the church.
