Holiday - I am on holiday in Ireland until Nov. 14th. Fr. Michael Johnstone has very kindly agreed to supply for me in my absence. The parish telephone line will be transferred to Deacon Martin's number and please contact him if necessary. I think it easiest if there is only this bulletin of Mass times while I am away. On Remembrance Sunday we will keep the 2 Minutes Silence before the 11.00am Mass. I regret not being here for the centenary of the Armistice. I will, however, be celebrating Mass in Ireland for the dead of the wars.

Caritas/St. Edmund's Fund – Next weekend, 3rd & 4th November, there will be an optional retiring collection after all Masses for the Diocesan social outreach charities Caritas/St. Edmund's Fund. Those who have St. Edmund's Fund boxes at home are asked to bring in their donations (but please retain your boxes).

Thank You from Missio – Thank you very much for your contribution to last week's World Mission Sunday collection. Your prayers and donations will help missionaries across the world share the Gospel of hope with those in greatest need. Please pray for the work of Missio and all those working to offer the love of Jesus, that we may remain strong in our witness to Christ's love for all peoples. To continue supporting mission throughout the year, please go to www.missio.org.uk or call 020 7821 9755.

PACT – Prison Advice & Care Trust send their thanks for the generous £210.86 raised by the parish for Prisoners' Sunday. The funds raised will enable Pact to continue to provide their vital services to prisoners, people with previous convictions, their children and families. Pact asks us all to continue to keep those affected by prison in our prayers. Should you like to receive Pact's quarterly supporter newsletter, please contact them on news@prisonadvice.org.uk. Or if you would like to volunteer for Pact, please email volunteer@prisonadvice.org.uk. You can also call Pact on 020 7735 9535.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR THE THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Cry for Help - We all understand Bartimaeus' cry for help, after all, most of us have felt like that at some stage in our lives. How many of us have felt trapped in jobs we hate, in bodies that are weak or in relationships that are failing? Yet how many of us feel that we should accept our gloomy lot in life and suffer in silence? Praying to God for help doesn't seem much of an option in a world governed by science. We have lost our sense of wonderment. We have lost our belief in what we cannot see.

Today Bartimaeus, the blind man, teaches us a lesson in prayer. He certainly wasn't ready to suffer in silence. He cried out and many rebuked him telling him to be silent, but he kept calling out all the more. The lesson is that the blind man's persistence and faith were rewarded.

In our modern-day scientific world, faith is a stumbling point because it suggests believing in things of which there can be no proof - things we can't see. Of course, this is true, but faith also means believing in things that are all around us. Sometimes we suffer in silence when we are surrounded by people who could help us given half the chance. Today we exercise our faith and ask for help. We remember that we have friends, neighbours, professional counsellors and medics who we can call upon. We remember to put our problems before God and ask for help.

The Angelus

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary. R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.
Hail Mary ...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord. R. Be it done unto me according to thy word.
Hail Mary ...

V. And the Word was made flesh. R. And dwelt among us. Hail Mary ...

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God. R. That we may be made worth of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: Pour forth, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy grace into our hearts, that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ thy Son was made known by the message of an angel may, by his Passion and Cross, be brought to the glory of his Resurrection, through the same Christ, our Lord. Amen.
